THE MISSION/SCOPE OF THE AYL BASEBALL BOARD

Arapahoe Youth League (AYL) Baseball is a community-based baseball program that works diligently to provide the best competition, fields and umpires for the development of youth athletes within our AYL Member Club Territories, while maintaining the spirit of community (our neighborhood) teams competing against each other. To support this mission, AYL Baseball offers three (3) levels of competitive baseball; our C-Prep League, our Competitive (AAA/Majors) League as well as our Intermediate (AA) League.

C-Prep ~ Upper and Lower Divisions of 7th and 8th graders only

Competitive ~ AAA and Majors Divisions consisting of ages 8 through 13

Intermediate ~ AA program consisting of age groups 6 through 13/14

~ Ages 6 and 7 are coach pitch

~ Age 8 is modified coach pitch

~ Age 9 and up is kid pitch

The AYL Baseball Board has made and will continue to make efforts to update and amend the AYL Baseball Rules for accuracy and to adapt to current and relevant new rules for each new baseball season.

These AYL Baseball Rules are provided “as is” and to the fullest extent applicable, are the guiding principles for AYL Baseball, however, the AYL Baseball Board retains BROAD DISCRETION and does reserve the right to change, amend and/or to make exception to any rule as deemed necessary, and without limitation, by looking at any circumstance that warrants such action. These changes, including change in content, description, terms, etc. may be made at any time without notice by a majority Board vote.

AYL By-Laws and General Principles of Operation, govern over all AYL sports. All non-baseball league rules are addressed in the AYL General Principles of Operation (GP’s). All references to the Board in this document will mean the AYL Baseball Board and/or its Delegates.

The current edition of the “National Federation of High School Associations Baseball Rule Book”, with associated modifications by CHSAA, shall govern all situations not addressed by the AYL General and Age Specific Baseball Rules.

Rule 1 Sportsmanship/Ejections

The AYL Baseball League is committed to promoting good sportsmanship, responsible behavior, and a positive environment for the youth of our community to play the game of baseball. AYL has a zero-tolerance policy regarding ejections and behavior. All coaches, players, and parents/spectators will be held to this standard.

1.1 Each Member Club is ultimately responsible for the conduct and sportsmanship of their coaches, players and parents/spectators. Similarly, each Head Coach is ultimately responsible for the conduct and sportsmanship of their assistant coaches, players, and parents/spectators.

1.2 If a Head Coach, assistant coach or parent/spectator is ejected because of their own actions, it will result in that person being given at a minimum a One (1) league game suspension, potentially increased up to Three (3) games upon AYL Baseball Board review, played by that team. Upon being suspended, they may not attend or be on the premises during the entire duration of the games played under suspension.

1.4 If any person other than the Head Coach associated with said team (coach, player, or parent/ spectator) is ejected for any reason; the Head Coach is also removed and must leave immediately and for the remainder of that game.

It is the Head Coach's responsibility to know this rule, therefore, any Head Coach that does not voluntarily leave, will be removed from the next game played, in addition to a Member Club fine of $100.00.

On a close play that the runner did not slide but did try to avoid a tag and or a collision and there was no intent to contact, the runner shall not be called out for not avoiding contact. Runners may not intentionally interfere by veering towards, without sliding, at defensive players who are trying to complete double plays. At the umpires' discretion, both runners may be called out. If the umpire feels that the contact was intentional and/or malicious, then the runner will be declared out and may be ejected from the game (all subsequent at bats will be recorded as outs).

12.3.1 If a team uses a line-up that contains substitute players, all starting players may be removed and re-enter the game once but must re-enter in their original position in the batting order. Non-starters are not allowed to re-enter. When a starter re-enters, the player in the starter's batting position in the batting order must be removed from the game and is ineligible for the remainder of the game.

12.3.2 A DH may be used in one of two scenarios (AAA/M only)

1. The DH may be a 10th starter hitting for any one of the nine starting defensive players. If the DH is used in this manner the role of the DH is terminated for the remainder of the game when:
 - a) The defensive player, or any previous defensive player for whom the DH batted, subsequently bats, pinch hits or pinch runs for the DH; or
 - b) The DH or any previous DH assumes a defensive position.
2. The starting DH may be any one of the starting defensive players. In this manner, the starting defensive player has two positions: the defensive player and the DH. The role of the defensive player may be substituted for by any legal substitute. If the defensive player has been substituted for, the original player/DH may reenter one time. The role of the DH is terminated for the remainder of the game when:
 - a. A substitute or former substitute for the defensive role subsequently participates in an offensive role; or
 - b. The starting defensive player/DH is substituted for either as a hitter or a runner

12.3.3 The DH must be listed next to or under the player he is batting for in lineup.

12.3.4 The DH and the player he is batting for are both locked into the same batting slot; neither of these two players can ever bat in another batting position.

12.3.5 If the DH enters the game on defense, the player he was batting for must come out of the game.

12.3.6 Free substitution is not allowed.

12.4 Free substitution will be observed at all levels of play in AA and for ages 8 – 10 for AAA/M.

12.5.3 Teams violating the Minimum Play Rule shall forfeit the game and the AYL Baseball Board may suspend the Head Coach of such team for one or more games.

12.7 A player who arrives late to a game may be added to the bottom of the line-up provided his team's lead-off hitter has not batted twice in the game. Once the leadoff batter has completed a second at bat the late player is not eligible to participate in the game.

12.8 If a team starts a game with nine (9) or more players and because of illness, injury, or ejection the lineup drops to 8 players, the team may continue to play with the eight (8) remaining players with a penalty of an out where the removed player is due to bat.
